

SJV Data Solutions' Global Background Check Data

Think globally. Act locally. Yes, it's an old maxim, but it's what you need to be doing if you're a CRA providing background checks these days. Here's why.

17% of the U.S. workforce is foreign-born or has lived in a different country.

Your clients are hiring internationally to get the best talent. But they're exposed because they don't really know the talent they're hiring. SJV Data Solutions offers expansive global reach with local background screening expertise to make you the go-to resource for international background checks.

Getting You Closer to the Data

Data source transparency, local country requirements and long turnaround times are just a few of the obstacles facing your clients who want to conduct background checks on international talent. Selling international background checks is challenging. Even painful. But highly profitable. Finding the expertise, technology and information stack that makes you efficient, accurate and reliable always seems like it's just one application out of reach... and defining a trustworthy platform that you can build your global screening business on, impossible. Or it was impossible...
